

Trump Cuts Fines for Nursing Home Safety Violations

The Obama administration toughened fines issued to nursing homes found to be non-compliant with Medicare guidelines in 2014. Encouraged by the health care sector, President Donald J. Trump started to rollback Obama-era regulations mid-2017, lowering fines issued to nursing homes endangering the safety of their residents.

