

Who Reaches the Hospital?

White and Hispanic males are less likely to die in a hospital when they overdose. White females are more likely to die outside a hospital when compared to Hispanic and Black females.

