

Nursing Home Fines For Health and Safety Violations in Texas

The Obama administration toughened fines issued to nursing homes found to be non-compliant with Medicare guidelines in 2014. Encouraged by the health care sector, President Donald J. Trump started to rollback Obama-era regulations mid-2017, lowering fines issued to nursing homes endangering the safety of their residents.

Source: Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services